

1

Inland

HACIENDA DE VEGA

This Mexico City familia serves up tasty fare from generation-passed recipes overseen by matriarch chef Patricia Vega herself. It's also about the al fresco setting with its 120-foot flowing river, outdoor candlelit cabanas, fire pits, and lush gardens. 2608 South Escondido Boulevard, Escondido, haciendadevega.com

PETERSON'S DONUT CORNER

Get your French crullers, fritters, butterlogs, and cream puffs at this donut haunt that's open until the wee hours (think 3 a.m. cravings). 903 South Escondido Boulevard, Escondido, petersonsdonutcorner.menutoeat.com

THE YELLOW DELI

Taste great organic food in a lovely homey setting, owned by a communal group of farmers and woodworkers who've created their version of a Utopian society in Vista. 315 East Broadway, yellowdeli.com/vista

URBN COAL-FIRED PIZZA

Their New Haven-style pizza, including original pies like mashed potato and bacon, are so popular they opened a second location in North Park. Hey Vista, way to show the hipsters how it's done. 203 Main Street, Vista, urbnpizza.com

THE BAR AT RANCHO BERNARDO INN

Esteban Interiors transformed the once forgettable room, giving it a European brasserie feel where we now love to nosh on executive chef Nicolas Bour's short rib chili and sloppy joe sliders, and sip the Broken Heart cocktail with blood orange, passion fruit, and pomegranate purees mixed with Herradura Reposado and Cointreau. 17550 Bernardo Oaks Drive, ranchobernardoinn.com

POWAY MIDLAND RAILROAD & ANTIQUE TRAINS

In Old Poway Park, kids both big and small want to choo-choo on a 1907 Baldwin 0-4-0 Steam Locomotive and Tender or 1894 Los Angeles Yellow Line Trolley Car. All aboard! 14134 Midland Road, powaymidlandrr.org

2

3