To Whom It May Concern,

Working with Esteban Interiors, Inc. has been a true pleasure. Our home has some beautiful architecture and views and Esteban and James have used those backdrops to create so much more. From choosing and designing whole wall units and lighting, to furniture and coverings, to wall coverings (I can hardly call it paper) and rugs, they have inspired me to keep asking for more. My eyes are so delighted everywhere I look. The art they have chosen as well as the art installations of our own pieces make our home beautiful and tasteful and never overwhelming. And I feel at home in the luxury and style to which I have been introduced so I know they find or create what will work for us.

As a company they are always available to oversee their work installed by their chosen professionals. Everyone has been exemplary at their crafts and nothing has to be done twice. All have been conscientious and considerate to the homeowner and the home. When it comes to records and bill keeping they are right on it and up to date so there is never a question or a double payment. Their staff is as efficient and professional as they are so anytime there is an email or call it is handled quickly and appropriately.

We highly recommend to anyone considering a redesign or new design concept that they should choose Esteban Interiors, Inc. They are a company of high standards in design as well as business practices. Esteban and James are a joy to work with and their commitment to the task and people they are working with is ever present. We look forward to their continued success so that we can always call for new enchantments.

Sincerely, Carol Kornfeld
