

SEXIEST AFTER-WORK SCENE: GRANT GRILL LOUNGE

If confidence is key to sex appeal, then the Grant Grill Lounge has just the right swagger. We love the stateliness of the hotel and the classic styling in the lounge, with metal cocktail tables and polished brass gleaming everywhere. We love that as other clubs and bars change hands, menus, deejays and in-your-face promotions every weekend, The Grant Grill sticks to live jazz music and excellent cocktails. Always. No need to try to be everything when you can do classic so well. To sip some of the sex appeal for yourself, try mixologist and soon-to-be cicerone (that's a beer sommelier, folks) Jeff Josenhans' Manhattan cocktail. Aged 100 days in oak barrels, it's bottled in limited quantities by American High West Rye Whiskey with vermouth and premier old-fashioned bitters. grantgrill.com.
